

Open Call for Researchers

Join the LumoTV Creative Team: We're Looking for a Researcher!

Are you passionate about storytelling and production? Do you thrive in a fast-paced, creative environment? LumoTV is seeking a talented and dynamic Researcher to join our Creative team for an exciting 3-month contract position. This is an opportunity to work on groundbreaking social campaigns and productions that captivate audiences and push creative boundaries.

About LumoTV

At LumoTV, we're dedicated to creating innovative, engaging, and impactful content that resonates with viewers within the deaf community. As we continue to grow and take on new projects, we're looking for a Researcher to help manage the production process from concept to completion.

Contract length: 3 months (flexible and with potential for extension)

Location: Old Street, London (Hybrid)

Key Responsibilities

- Research & Idea Generation: Gather information, fact-check, and brainstorm ideas for new social campaigns.
- Talent & Location Scouting: Find potential contributors and locations for shoots.
- Self-Shooting & Editing: Take a hands-on approach in both filming and editing short-form content (rotation responsibility within a small team; training can be provided).
- Support: Assist the Producer and the overall production process as needed, including completing call sheets and risk assessments.
- Location Coordination: Oversee location management, ensuring safety, briefing, and caring for presenters and contributors.
- Booking: Coordinate bookings for production equipment, crew, locations, and/or transportation.

Requirements

- Proven experience as a Researcher or in a similar role.
- Proficiency in British Sign Language is essential.
- Strong understanding of the production process, from ideation to execution.
- Ability to manage multiple projects simultaneously while meeting deadlines.
- Effective communication skills for collaborating with contributors.
- A passion for storytelling and delivering high-quality creative content.
